Family Fest Huge Spaghetti Success

Jamming on the front steps of St. Benedict the Moor Catholic School the University of Dayton Pep Band entertained the neighborhood and families that attended the Spaghetti Family Fest on April 14, 2016. This spirited occasion attracted all ages. Families were treated with gifts, presentations, and FAZOLI'S spaghetti, salad, sweets, and beverages.

During the spaghetti dinner Sheriff Larry Lane was the keynote speaker. Sheriff Lane did an excellent presentation about child motivation. By using the acronym for S.T.A.R.S. Sheriff Lane identified "S"tarting Structure in the home. "T"alk to your child because open communication is important for child development. Give a child the "A"udacity to imagine because "you can be whatever you want to be." Teach your child to be "R'esponsible and "R'espectful with one's talent. Sheriff Lane completed his speech with "S"erving others instead of thinking of yourself. Students should volunteer in different community activities.

After the dinner there were different presentations and vendors in which the crowd could observe. Highlighting the night were the many free raffles. Many of the items were donated by the United Against Violence of Greater Dayton organization. Bicycles, gift bags, and WalMart gift cards were some of the special gifts that were presented to the lucky people. Special kudos to Michelle Sherman, Mrs. Adams, Kathy Moore, Rhonda Mercks, Michelle Gibbs, University of Dayton, Fazoli's Restaurant, Sheriff Lane, Child Protection, Fr. Francis and Mrs. Pitts for organizing this wonderful event.
